TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 1890.

Congressman W. T. Ellis is a candidate for re-election next November. This is authoritative. He didn't scare worth a cent.

The Democrats carried five of the seven cities in Iowa which held municipal elections last week. The leaves is still at work.

When the Senate wants to make its secrets doubly secure it should plug the key-hole with Chandler or some other small potato.

The United States Senate has consumed a week of its valuable time vainly trying to find out why newspaper men know so much.

Matilda Ruby, a colored woman, died at Raywick, Ky., at the age of 123 years. Her mother died five years ago at the age of 135 years.

A reward of $1,000 is offered for the capture of Wm. H. Pope, the fly young bank clerk who eloped from Louisville some days ago with $60,000.

Conductor John T. Hildebrand and Mr. Jas. A. Watson, a prominent business man, of Henderson, were killed in an accident on the O. V. Railroad near Corydon, last week.

The funeral services of Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, late Minister to Germany, were held at Cincinnati Saturday, the remains having arrived from abroad. The Kentucky Legislature attended in a body.

California workingmen who are out work are appealing to the Federal government for aid in their dire extremity. And this is a state that helped elect Harrison in order that a workingman's millennium might be inaugurated.

Col. Ned Conway, of Henderson, is also out for Congress, while both Col. Powell and Dr. Norman, of the same county, are possibilities in the contest. It begins to look like the race is to be a free-for-all, with Ellis first and the rest nowhere.

The Senate Committee has reported in favor of the Republican contestants from Montana and they will of course be seated. The rump legislature that elected them had instructions from headquarters before the fraud was consummated.

The infamous gerrymander in Ohio by which the Democrats have heretofore only held five congressional districts, has been overthrown and a fair apportionment, made under which fifteen districts will be Democratic. The bill has become a law.

Christiansburg, Virginia, according to a veracious newspaper correspondent, has been startled by the appearance of four distinct suns at one time, each surrounded by a rainbow. This puts to shame the man who sees only two moons on his way home at night.

The great and only Patti filled her engagements at Louisville last week, appearing on Friday night. The engagement was for three nights, on only one of which Patti herself was to appear and it was not known what night she would sing until the tickets were all sold.

The latest from Mr. Taubee at the time of going to press was the following in yesterday's Nashville American: "Ex-Congressman Taubee continues to grow more and more feeble and his hold on life more and more precarious. He is worse to-night than he was yesterday, and death may come before morning. His recovery now would be almost miraculous."

The surplus, which was about $70,000 under the Democratic administration, has now, after one year of Republicanism, dwindled down to $29,000 and the party leaders are becoming frightened. The Direct Tax Bill, which proposes to refund about $40,000,000 to the States, paid out during the war, will, if it becomes a law, wipe out the poor little surplus still on hand and leave an actual deficit.

A horrible wreck occurred at Bayview, near Buffalo, N. Y., last Thursday, in which twenty odd lives were lost. Among the killed was Mrs. Jos. D. Baucus, of Saratoga, N. Y., a bride of one week, who was returning with her husband from their bridal tour. The husband was also badly injured. Mr and Mrs. J. L. Stewart, of Rochester, were both killed, while their baby in her mother's arms escaped without a scratch. The accident was caused by the parting of a train while going down a hill.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we could say: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find one but what was benefitted by taking it. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. Roper, Druggist, Genda Springs, Kansas. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

The Thorne tobacco bill regulating warehouse charges passed the House Friday.

The Legislature adjourned over Saturday to attend the Pendleton obsequies at Cincinnati.

Mr. Wallace's contz bill will be passed as soon as the General State Committee is reached in the call, which will be this or next week.

Friday was bill day and 54 new bills were introduced. This makes the total number of bills introduced in both houses 1,154.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart to succeed himself as medical superintendent of the Feeble Minded Institute; also the nominations of three commissioners for the Eastern Asylum.

Mr. Moore offered a bill to create a Board of State Commissioners of Public Charities, three in number, to be appointed by the Governor and paid from the per capita allowances of the eleemosynary institutions. The bill will probably pass and three $1,500 places will be at the Governor's disposal.

The House bill on calling the Constitutional Convention came up Friday and Mr. Warren, of Lincoln, made a speech against it. Mr. Smith of Graves, who is also opposed to the bill, will not speak against it but will content himself with a negative vote. The measure or a similar one is sure to pass and the convention will meet in October.

Mr. CLARK'S BILLS.

Hon. H. B. Clark, of Christian, has introduced sixteen bills, all of a local character. Most of them have passed the House and several of them have been signed by the Governor. The more important are the following:

To change the time of holding quarterly court from the first to the second Monday. Now a law.

For the benefit of Kitty Hawkins, col. Passed and signed.

To charter the Pembroke Deposit Bank. Passed and signed.

Authorizing the City of Hopkinsville to re-issue $15,000 of its matured bonds. Now a law.

Chartering the Kentucky Universalist Church in Hopkinsville. Passed and signed.

Amending the charter of Bethel Female College. Passed and signed.

Amending the Hopkinsville Public School act and authorizing the Trustees to build another school building. Has passed the Senate.

A bill just introduced prohibits the sale of spirits within three miles of Newstead church.

THE CRAFT.

The Paducah News is out in a new dress.

Kernels is the name of a new humorous paper at Louisville. Issued weekly.

The Wellfleet, Neb., Standard, a new paper by Bedford & Miller, has been received.

The Owensboro Inquirer has improved its appearance with a handsome new head.

W. W. Martin, associate editor of the Eddyville Gazette, has resigned and will practice law.

Chas. C. Howard, editor of the Larue Herald, was married on the 5th inst. to Miss Mattie Hansborough.

J. W. Falconer, editor Falconer's Magazine, published at Cynthiana, Ky., has been adjudged insane. The cause is said to have been excessive brain work.

The first number of the Wichita County Democrat, published at Iowa Park, in the Panhandle of Texas, has reached our table. It is edited by W. R. Crockett.

Bob Thomas' trial at Morganfield, for shooting and killing Geo. Elmore in a street encounter at Caseyville, will come up at this month's term of the Union Circuit Court.

Elmore has sold the Mayfield Democrat to Jas. T. Webb and retires from the paper. The last issue under his management was an enormous twenty-page edition boasting the town of Mayfield. Elmore is a good newspaper man and will not remain long out of the harness.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bassett have returned from Louisville.

Miss Fannie Fairleigh went to Louisville to hear Patti.

Mr. W. A. Wilgus has returned from a visit to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ware returned from a short trip to Louisville Friday.

Mrs. John O. Rust attended the Patti performances in Louisville last week.

Miss Sallie Mendel is visiting relatives and friends in Louisville and Cincinnati.

Dr. Jas. Rodman, Judge R. T. Petree and Mr. W. J. Withers visited Frankfort last week.

Rev. J. T. Barrow and family left yesterday for their new home at Sweetwater, Tenn., having been delayed a few days by high water.

CREAM OF NEWS.

He Bought too Largely.

(Saturday's Louisville Times.)

About 10 o'clock this morning W. E. Embry, a merchant of Howell, Christian county, walked into J. M. Robinson's dry goods store and said he wished to purchase some goods.

By the time he had arranged to buy everything in the store except the office boy's dinner basket, the clerks began to think something was wrong and they sent for Officers Basler and Kinnearney. When they arrived on the scene Mr. Embry had moved over to Bamberger, Bloom & Cos', and was buying them out. The officers took him to Chief Taylor's office and it was found that his brother had sent a telegram from Howell saying he was crazy and asking that he be held.

But by that time Mr. Embry seemed perfectly rational and he was permitted to return to his room at the Galt House. His relatives have been notified.

The Todd Primary.

The Democrats held a primary election in Todd Saturday. Full results could not be learned yesterday.

F. H. Bristow was nominated for Judge, D. M. Butler for Sheriff and W. T. Kirkland for Surveyor. The Clerk's race between Crit. Reeves and R. F. Bass was very close. Mrs. Sallie Burrell is thought to be nominated for School Superintendent. F. L. Wilkerson has probably defeated Jno. E. Byars for Attorney. The other races are too much mixed to tell anything about them until the count is made.

The Last Prop. Gone.

It has been learned from a most authoritative source that the decision of the lower court in the Ohio Valley Railroad case will be re-affirmed by the Court of Appeals. The case was argued the second time on Jan. 15. It will be taken up this week or next and a decision rendered. Judge Pryor, who was expected to change his opinion, states that his former opinion has been strengthened by a fuller hearing of the case. This may be taken as a settler for the O. V. proposition. Now for something else.

The Last Lecture.

The last of this season's Chautauqua lectures will be given at the Opera House on Friday night, the 28th inst. Bishop Vinson, Chancellor of the Chautauqua Assembly, will deliver his great lecture on "That Boy." Bear the date in mind and do not fail to hear it.

A Big Concern.

We wish to call attention in this issue to the advertisement of the immense manufacturing establishment, implement and seed store, of Forbes & Bro.

They keep constantly employed over our hundred men—salesmen and skilled mechanics. They pay out yearly thousands of dollars in wages, which is kept at home and paid directly to our farmers and merchants.

Again, Forbes & Bro. have had eighteen years experience in their special lines and thoroughly understand how and when to buy goods at the lowest prices. They buy only in large quantities thereby getting quantity prices and car load rates.

Their facilities are unsurpassed for building houses, manufacturing wagons, etc. Their planing mills have the latest and most expensive machinery. They employ only skilled mechanics. Their reputation for doing first class work and doing work promptly is unsurpassed.

Their stock of lumber, sash, doors, and blinds is large and complete.

A large stock of wagons, plows, seeds and all kinds of farmers' and builders' hardware. They expect to sell goods cheaper and do work more promptly than ever before. This is a home institution, working for the best interest of home people, both country and city, and should be liberally patronized.

THE THORNE BILL.
A Measure That Will Ruin The Tobacco Business.

Passed The House and Goes to The Senate.

The wheat crop is not hurt by cold weather so far.

WANTED, a copy of the KENTUCKIAN of June 21, 1889.

One Letter Press for sale at cost by Forbes and Bro.*

There was no preaching at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Mr. F. M. Whitlow's wife and two of their children are quite sick.

Pure-bred Plymouth Rock eggs for sale. Apply at this office.*

R. M. Wooldridge, livery, feed & stable, Fritz's stand. Telephone 142.*

Buy goods of 5—McGehee Bros.—5 Clarksville, Tenn., and save money.*

For rent, a large dry goods store room on N. W. Main and Ninth street. D. J. Gish.

Judge Petree presided as Circuit Judge yesterday while Judge Grace made a trip to Nashville.

Application for license to open another saloon on West Seventh St. will be made March 16.

Rev. Mr. Penn, of Arkansas, began a protracted meeting at the Baptist church in Clarksville Sunday. He is one of the noted evangelists of his denomination.

The City Council has returned $43 to Clark & Johnson, part of the first quarter of their saloon license, their house of business having been destroyed by fire.

Near the southern terminus of the Beverly Pike the road has sunk several feet in one place, and will probably form a sink hole in the middle of the road.

One of the best flouring mills in the county is that of P. P. Huffman, a few miles south of town. His flour compares most favorably with the choicest brands made by the mills of this city.

This bill will require the warehousemen to charge only $2 for selling a hogshead of tobacco. Our warehousemen tell us that a hogshead of tobacco cannot be put on the market and sold for less than $3.50. Quite a number of persons besides the warehousemen must get their living out of the one dollar over and above expenses of selling. It is asserted in most positive terms by all the warehousemen and many of the buyers of the Louisville market that the effect of the Thorne bill will be to close the warehouses of the city. They have taken steps to defeat its passage in the Senate, and their unanimous opposition, together with that of Paducah and Hopkinsville, may prevent its becoming a law. One of our warehousemen is of the opinion that it should pass the Senate it will be vetoed by the Governor, as he cannot fail to see how destructive it would prove to the best interests of the most important business interest of the State.

The fruit crop will undoubtedly be a short one and may be almost a total failure. The general opinion is that peaches, cherries, plums, pears, apples and even berries have been killed. Apples and grapes have probably not yet been injured.

Beach & Bowers' minstrels will appear at the Opera House to-night and the indications are that they will have a first-rate house. The company is one of the best of its kind and the papers give them a good word wherever they have appeared.

Messrs. C. T. Martin & Co. have rented the fair grounds near this place and will train horses for the race.

Mr. C. E. Tandy, of Hopkinsville, will have charge of the stock. He comes well recommended as a first-class trainer.—Princeton Banner.

In the late primaries the Democratic candidates for jailer received 2,009 votes, while the Republican candidates could get out but 1,903. The Democratic nominee received 780, while the Republican nominee got 574. Straws like these show which way the hurricane is headed.

Long, Winfree & Kelly have adjusted the loss on Mr. Jno. D. Bro-naugh's dwelling in Pembroke, burned

Feb. 28th, by paying him the full amount of the insurance, $1,200. It was insured in the Guardian, of London, one of the best companies represented here. The prompt manner in which the loss was paid in less than a week shows how the Guardian personal do business.

A prominent insurance man of this sent with the compliments of Mr. R. W. Norwood, formerly of this city.

Rev. C. S. Lucas, an evangelist of the Christian church, began a protracted meeting at Mr. McDonald's church last Sunday morning. At the evening service he preached a powerful sermon from the text, "If ye love me, keep my commandments." Without attempting to give a synopsis of his sermon, we must say that he handled the theme of love, human and divine, in a most masterly manner—love is the great, the only commandment, which is kept at home and paid directly to our farmers and merchants.

Again, Forbes & Bro. have had eighteen years experience in their special lines and thoroughly understand how and when to buy goods at
